ASIAFEST '22, the 18th Annual Plano Asian American Heritage Festival

ASIAFEST IS BACK! Celebrating Asian American Heritage Foundation, a non-profit all-volunteer organization, announces AsiaFest '22, the 18th Annual Plano Asian American Heritage Festival. AsiaFest '22 will be held in-person at Haggard Park in Historic Downtown Plano.

~ MORE ~

Enjoy our family-friendly signature cultural performances from all parts of Asia. Learn about Asian artistic traditions like cooking, visual art, calligraphy, martial arts, origami, fashion, and more.

Members of the Plano City Council will be proclaiming Saturday, May 7, 2022 as AsiaFest Day in Plano. We plan on livestreaming part of the day's activities.

The Festival features its usual wide variety of food vendors from area restaurants.

Plano AsiaFest '22 is also hosting a monthlong Art Exhibition in the lobby of the Courtyard Theater running from May 2 through May 31, 2022.

Visit our website at planoasiafest.org for up-to-date information.

Plano AsiaFest is a longstanding cultural festival in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, celebrating our culture and heritage through performances, food, and art. We're a family friendly event typically held at Haggard Park in Plano, Texas.

We hope you will join us. AsiaFest is brought to you by the Celebrating Asian American Heritage Foundation.
